CELEBRATING 50 YEARS!

This year, two of BGV's longstanding nonprofit partners—Breckenridge Outdoor Education Center (BOEC) and Keystone Science School (KSS)—are celebrating 50 years of service in Summit County. Join us in honoring the essential work they do and learning more about how you can support these organizations.

For five decades, BOEC has been a place where individuals discover their strength, build confidence, and experience the freedom of outdoor adventure —regardless of ability. From skiing and rafting to climbing and community-building, BOEC's adaptive programs have transformed lives since 1976. Join BOEC in celebrating this milestone through various events this season and be part of the next 50 years of outdoor adventures for all.
